

To Whom It May Concern:

I am happy that New Jersey has the strictest Do Not Call policy. It is about time that steps are taken to protect me, the consumer, not the corporation. Do not take any steps to change this ruling. It is important and hope that more of initiatives like these will follow, especially addressing call done on cell phones.

Sincerely,

Sarah A. Thoma